CHIEF C POLITICAL 15 APR. 1919

Dear Sir,

In reply to your D. O. No. G.23186/P.& S. dated 11th instant, re the arrangement of matter appearing in the Gazette, I beg to state that I am in full agreement with the changes proposed therein as they will give prominence to -- important Government Orders, published in the Gazette, and -- also serve to bring together in consecutive order all matter sent by Government for publication in the Gazette, while -- matter sent by Heads of departments comes next and public -- and private advertisements come last.

In this connection, I have only to bring to the notice of Government, the fact that the adoption of the proposed arrangement will create some confusion for some time to -- come at least, as the Gazette subscriptions for the several parts of the Gazette have only recently been revised and fixed. There will be three different rates of subscription in force, viz., (1) the old rates prevailing before January 1919 (2) the recently revised rates which are in force now
